

Kosovo—A Moral Obligation

Question: Do you favor or oppose the presence of US ground troops, along with troops from other countries, in an international peacekeeping force in Kosovo?

Source: Survey by the Gallup Organization for CNN/USA Today, June 11-13, 1999.

Question: Regarding the situation in Kosovo, how confident are you that each of the following will happen? Are you very confident, somewhat confident, not too confident, or not at all confident that... the US effort to establish peace in Kosovo will succeed?

Source: Survey by the Gallup Organization for CNN/USA Today, June 11-13, 1999.

Question: Which of these two reasons is more important to you: America's moral obligation in Kosovo, or its national interest in Kosovo?

Note: Asked of those who said the US has a national interest (55%) and a moral obligation (58%) in trying to help stop Serbian actions in Kosovo.
Source: Survey by ICR Survey Research Group for NPR/Kaiser Family Foundation/Harvard University, April 23-28, 1999.

Question: In the future, do you think that the US and other Western powers have a moral obligation to use military force in Europe, if necessary, to prevent one group of people from committing genocide against another, or don't you think so?

Source: Survey by Princeton Survey Research Associates for the Pew Research Center, June 9-13, 1999.

Money

vs.

Aid

Question: Do you support or oppose the US contributing significant amounts of money and material to help rebuild refugee areas in Kosovo?

Source: Survey by the Washington Post, June 11-14, 1999.

Question: Would you favor or oppose the US government sending economic aid to help rebuild the area that the refugees will return to in Kosovo?

Source: Survey by the Gallup Organization for CNN/USA Today, June 11-13, 1999.